Grandma Needs A Nap! is a beautifully illustrated family picture book and DVD version of Grandma s Day, a day that is filled with surprises, fun, games, music and magic. The story has a heart-tugging twist at its end. The book and DVD are dedicated to grandparents and caregivers, who help children experience life through the loving interaction of generations.

Grandma Needs A Nap! also provides practical suggestions and easily read resource pages in a section entitled Grandma's Hints .

Grandma Needs A Nap! authors, who are both educators of children and teachers as well as being grandparents, describe a day filled with relaxed structure (loving routine) and creativity. The day described through the eyes of Ana and Andy provides, with subtle suggestion, a hint of a model of a day that is so universal in its design. Activities bubble forth as the children discover the joy of learning. Through the experiences in a loving, warm, soft atmosphere, learning and love are linked. Ana and Andy learn to love learning and give tribute to their grandma.

Featured on the back cover is a review by Anne Marie Santoro, From the Heart Communications, and former 10-year Director of Educational Programs and Services at Children's Television Workshop (CTW - now Sesame Street). Anne Marie writes "I encourage you to jump into this delightful book with the young children in your life. The gentle, engaging experiences connect life and learning in playful ways that feed the mind and the heart.
