Pomegranate Raven Snow

An agoraphobic writer rescues a boy with wings. An ancient vampire learns about love from a modern drag queen. A young man must choose between hope and love as the world is ending (or is it?). In this collection of short stories, Raven Snow explores the natural in the supernatural. Alternately humorous, romantic, somber, and macabre, these sometimes fantastic, sometimes incredible, sometimes horrific tales harken back to the myths that help us understand our world - and ourselves.
