The Unforgotten Promise (Volume 1) J. Anne Lezsley

Will God keep His promise? Caeleigh has made extraordinary moves of obedience and faith, believing that the promises made to her by God await on the other side. Life upon arrival there, however, unfolds quite differently than she had intended—the desired promises persist unfulfilled for years. At times succumbing to the natural human response to surrender to disappointment and lose hope, Caeleigh strives to persevere, pursuing the means to reconcile with God, herself, and life surrounding. As she seeks to make peace with what she considers the perennial lackings in her life, Caeleigh learns that God has not forgotten her heart.
