Can a poor misfit be accepted back in her hometown?

Haley West has returned to Skyview, Missouri, to look after her family. Her plans do not include another disastrous venture into romance.

Widower Neil Bronson wants nothing more than to assist his ailing parents—and to know if the ministry is in God's plans for his life. Still grieving, he is determined to shield his heart from the possibility of losing another person he loves.

When Haley and Neil meet on her mail route, sparks of the present begin to outweigh clouds of the past. As they tackle neighborhood and church problems together, new and personal problems begin to develop—issues involving their hearts.

Dare they trust their hearts? Will they recognize God's plans for their future?
