In a world full of so many atrocious, and negative things, sometimes people forget that they could look on the bright side. Though, with what was going on in the world, and with just everyday personal lives; that was much easier said than done. In a world containing so much anger, hatred, demise and obliteration, it was challenging to hold onto faith and hope that everything would be alright.

God granted people that were once humans, as shape shifters. These shape shifters were in charge to guard humanity from evil. But because of one man, what was never supposed to be a war...he had started one! Refusing to be second best, Carter had found someone that would make him a leader, the Devil himself. But in order to do so, Carter needed to sell his soul to the Devil. Now forming two types of shape shifters; the Guardians and Strikers!

My name is Jessica (Jessie) Dachel, I was born March 8, 1990 in Edina Minnesota. I currently still do reside in Minnesota. I am quite the animal lover and always will be. I have been writing, probably since about the age of eight. I have always known I wanted to be a writer, but never knew how to go about being one, until recently. My favorite author, and one of my role models for writing is Stephen King. I hope to be as good as him one day! My writing I think will be unique, as I have never really been one to write romance or happy endings.
