“The subject matter is so vast and comprehensive, and so close to home, that the reader wonders if this is a mystery thriller using the real world and our personal lives as subject matter, or a real investigation. This seems to be precisely what the author wants the reader to wonder, which makes the book more than entertainment and more than a documentary. It is truly a thriller, but fiction or not, the reader is left looking in the mirror to decide.” - Don Sullivan

“Author Ray Songtree nails popular culture, environmental crisis and foreign policy to the same wall, the heart of the reader. With hundreds of color images, the plot becomes multi-media event. The book is fascinating, shocking, provoking, and timely. The author paints the issues of our present lives on an ancient canvas of understanding that rivets the reader to the value of his message...” - Boston Book Review
