Life Lessons From Summer Camp Corey Morong

After many summers spent in summer camp, I decided it was time to write down some of the lessons I've learned. Don't let the summer theme fool you. These lessons can be applied to different facets of life.

Whether you are a parent, a teacher, a counselor, a teen, a mentor, a leader; these lessons can apply to you.

Even better? All post tax royalties from this book will be used to help families afford summer care. Get some valuable knowledge and make a difference at the same time.

Introduction:

There are lessons hidden everywhere in life. Lessons, that if learned early, can change our lives for the better. Some lessons are easier to find than others and some lessons are just plain tough to learn. With open eyes and an open mind, these valuable lessons can change your life forever.

Inevitably, when you spend a great deal of time in a particular place or situation, you grow more comfortable and are able to sit back a little and absorb what's around you. Summer camp is a place where I've spent a lot of time. In fact, most everybody has spent some time in a summer camp during their lifetime. As a youngster, time in a new place can seem daunting. That feeling does not get much easier for many adults. This book helps alleviate some of the worry associated with any situation in life, with lessons learned from camp. This book is a book for all ages, containing life lessons that present themselves at camp and lessons that can be extended to all of life.
