A little girl, riding on a bus was reading her copy of Little Visits with God so intently she almost missed her stop. An Indian in Peru, hearing a family devotion based on Little Visits with God, asked a missionary if he could come back every night. A family in Nebraska, appreciating what the book had done for them, bought copies of Little Visits with God for every family in their church. MORE LITTLE VISITS WITH GOD is a sequel to the first volume of devotions for families with young children titled Little Visits with God. Written by the same authors, it has the same simplicity, delightful interest, and distinctly Christian and inspiring content that made the first volume a best seller. The authors wanted to produce a book which would bring children into a direct encounter with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and like in Him. "That they succeeded in doing this with the first Little Visits", says Mr. Riess "is unquestionable. The same can be said for this second heart-warming book and more! Through it our children will grow happier and stronger in the sunshine of God's love."
