Yoga/Pilates instructor Thyme Field's tender heart has gotten her into trouble before--garden-variety trouble like adopting stray animals or volunteering to take the overnight shift at a telethon. But this time, she's in way over her head.

Thyme's working for a hard-charging career woman, whose nanny Helena disappears. Thyme finds herself helping Victor, the woman's brother, as he searches for his missing sister. Victor and Thyme stumble onto evidence that suggests Helena's been murdered, but nothing's as it seems, and Victor's holding back information.

When it becomes clear they aren't the only ones hunting for Helena, they'll have no choice but to rely on each other to save their own lives.

This is the third book in the We Sisters Three series of romantic comedic mysteries. If you enjoyed it, be sure to check out Rosemary's Gravy (book one, now available for FREE) and Sage of Innocence (book 2). Each book stands alone, but you'll probably enjoy them more if you read them in the order in which they were written.
