My Strength and My Defense Ignacio Haro

My Strength and My Defense reveals the author's thoughts and experiences on God and life, based on real-life events that helped shape his thinking and view of the world and religion. The writings draw on biblical teachings and classical literature for reference, based on the inspiration of the Paraclete. In the work, the author endeavors to present to the reader insightful, intelligent perspectives on issues such as death, sin, faith, and reliance on God for our daily needs-things that affect our daily lives. The book is intended to offer a sense of hope to the hopeless that through belief and faith in God and a choice to give your life to Jesus, life can get better.
