Malana, daughter of a nomad chief, is caught up in a deadly quarrel between her father and a neighboring chief. When Malana is dishonored as revenge for her father's oathbreaking, she knows that only her death can restore her family's honor. But fate intervenes, offering Malana a new life, full of possibilities she had never imagined. And when her new life is threatened by the old one, Malana discovers that she must not only act to save herself, but her new world as well.
