The Man Who Planted Trees (Children's version) Elliot Lord

Adapted from the original story by Jean Giono, this version has been written to make this beautiful story accessible to children (aged 7 and up).

It begins with a man who is travelling through the French countryside and who comes across a shepherd. He gets to know this man and learns about what he has set himself to be his life's goal. The traveller later fights in the First World War and afterwards meets the shepherd again to see how his work is progressing. He is amazed at what he sees.
