Unexpected deaths of loved ones are events we inevitably experience at certain times in our lives. But do the connections really end at the time of death? Is it not possible that communication can occur with our deceased loved ones? It often seems the depth of our grief and inhibitions block attempts of the deceased in reaching out to alleviate our grieving hearts. An analysis of the author's experiences with family members who have died opens the door to a recognition of the potential and to a deeper understanding of the meaning behind such encounters. If communication with the deceased is real, then what other possibilities might await inquiring minds? Increased awareness brings the knowledge that negative energies in our lives are capable of transformation into positive outcomes. The results can be astounding. Explore with confidence and gratitude.. The universe awaits the opportunity to embrace your being and fulfill your needs.
