Lauren is out for revenge. A terrible childhood has left her hurt and wounded, with a need to destroy the happiness of others. When she turns up in Spellholm, she tries her hardest to cause trouble.

What she didn't bank on, was meeting her mate, a bear shifter she shares a bond with.

Chris can't believe it when he meets his mate, and she tells him he's made a mistake. It can't be true, there is no way she can already belong to another.

Each time she pushes him away, he becomes more confused. Why would she do something like this to hurt the one person she should care about above all else?

But when he catches her in the arms of his brother, he realises things have gone too far. Can he tame his mate, and discover her reasons for lying?

Just when he thinks they are making progress, she makes a mistake that not only threatens their relationship, but also puts his brothers lives in jeopardy too.

Contains explicit adult scenes.

This is the third and final part in the Shifters of Spellholm Forest - The Bears
