Cross-Cultural Perspectives in Introductory Psychology William F. Price, Richley H. Crapo

How well do the concepts of western psychology apply to non-western cultures? What can we learn about human behavior from cultures different from our own? These and similar questions lie behind a collection of original articles written by William F. Price and Rich Crapo. The book draws on examples from around the world to provide a multicultural view of human behavior. Each reading begins with an intriguing question about behavior which is then explored through cross-cultural research.
