Julia is living the dream life. She has a great job as a nurse and a perfect boyfriend, Evan, who's going to propose any day. Their future seems clear and bright. But when she gets a frantic call from her sister, Alyssa, her life is thrown into chaos. Dylan, the widower of Alyssa's best friend has lost his job and his house and needs a place to stay. Julia agrees to let him and his young daughter move in, but she has no idea that they'll move in on her heart, as well. Is her relationship with Evan strong enough to survive her growing attraction? Or is Dylan the one she's meant to be with? Julia must decide who she can't live without before she loses them both.
