It was the right thing to do, Father.” Quim breathed his last words and died in his father’s arms. Aelric, the new King of Atlantys, must somehow prepare and protect his people against their Nemesis, Corot, and his nefarious plans for the annihilation of them all. Then, in the midst of losses and grief, the most amazing and life-changing revelation is given to them and to their Kin in Marliondolen—a glimpse of the Creator’s Plan to save Mankind, and all of creation, from the consequences of sin. Will this great hope be enough to save them from Corot’s evil vengeance, or will the rich culture and people of Atlantys perish, leaving only legend? “The Books of the Faeltheon is a delightful series it is inspiring to read of characters who build marriages, communities, and their lives with the purpose of nurturing each other and devoting their lives to God. I love that the principles in these stories inspire me to live a higher life in God’s sight.” - Deborah Newren, mother of five “The Faeltheon books are full of bittersweet wonder that connects you personally to the Elves and Faeries. The pure faith that these magical people have for the Creator reminds me that in all things I must also trust in my Lord, no matter how hard that may prove to be.” - Abygail Merlino, college freshman
