Women, you are what men want. You are the treasure, not the map. After disappointing or hurtful experiences, women take matters into their own hands. They become the map instead of the treasure! Because she gives him her map, he wonders, how many other men have seen, touched, and worn the jewels in her chest? She is not precious to him anymore. Women forget that men want to pursue them. He wants her to catch his eye and then approach her the way he wants, but, when she ambushes him, she throws him off track. Women too often try to make things happen! He does not want to walk out his door and find her standing there. Looking for her is part of the pleasure. He enjoys the adventure. It is the journey to the destination that he desires. Do not give yourself away. Know your value; do not let yourself be taken for anything less than you are worth.
