Living with an Empty Chair Ph.D. Roberta Temes Ph.D.

This sensitive explanation of ways to cope with death has been welcomed by clergy, psychologists, bereavement counselors, and those touched by sorrow.

In this expanded edition, Roberta Temes has enlarged both the subject matter and the supplementary material through which people can come to terms with the stages of grief. Among the problems upon which she focuses are: living alone, children and grief, restructuring families, and the effects of suicide on survivors. This new edition also contains an up-to-date listing of resources - films, cassettes, professional services, and literature - for those seeking help.
