Southern Recipes: From A Mother's Kitchen To Yours

Every year our family would grow this large garden behind our home. A 50-by-30 yard garden seems immense when you are a kid. By the time it hit the kitchen table, it was “ummhh & awnn (using a country style Mayberry, USA – Andy Griffith dialect). “This is the best I ever put in my mouth!” After several years of that repetition, my sister and I would just look at each other and bust into a gut-wrenching laugh.

All those fine, home-grown ingredients are what went into my mother’s cooking to help it become so infamous. And those same homemade southern recipes are being passed down to you today.

Bernice G. Craddock focused her entire life on being a great wife, mother, and homemaker. At 78 years young, she decided to write her own southern cookbook. Her greatest challenge was narrowing it down to her 500 “most favourite” recipes.

Inside her collection, you will be able to enjoy popular southern recipes like:

Chicken Corn Soup

Clam Chowder

Casserole recipes

Sweet Potato Souffle

Sweet N' Sour Chicken & a variety of chicken recipes

Gingered Pork

Biscuit Recipes

And 400+ more salad, appetizer, main course, beverage and dessert recipes for you to share with your family.
