Frank Weston

Book Description Mr. Frank Weston, a warm hearted and brilliant man with a great sense of adventure and humor offers us a tremendous work. The history and knowledge that fill these pages cannot be found in schools or universities. The suppressed information contained in this book serves as a threat to White persons grasping to hold on to unearned privilege and power. Mr. Weston shares with us his journey and the journey of millions of people of African descent. It is an odyssey to reclaim what Europeans, North Americans and religions have attempted to conquer-the peoples and resources of the African continent. The European and United States government, in addition to corporations, want us to believe that the countries and people of Africa are poor and ravaged by war. Likewise, people of African descent are portrayed as violent, lazy and inferior. Through research, travel and international networking, Mr. Weston exposes the campaign lead by the United States and Europe. Their intent is to oppress the peoples of African descent, and steal the wealth of the African continent. "This book is a movement, readers link for Africans and People of African Descent (PAD), professionals representatives and students to understand a people as return from the point of near zero to reclaim and develop their vast land and global wealth inheritance." Told from the author's Protective while on a near impossible journey back to his beloved Africa."
