StepSister Devotion (A Stepbrother Romance) Part Three Eve Cates

A Stepbrother Romance told from the male point of view.

I asked her to make a choice and deep down, I knew what it would be—our lives didn't go together, and they still don't. She's the head of a giant corporation and I'm a musician who spends months at a time on the road. We exist in different worlds and I can accept that because I'm not the boy I once was, I'm not the broken soul I once was either.

But the world is forever changing, and our professional worlds are merging. Suddenly, we're keeping similar company. Suddenly, we're back in each other's orbit. Things have changed. I have changed. Now, I'm a man who knows what he wants. Now, I'm a man who won't be playing any games. Now, I'm a man who'll take what's mine, and I won't apologise—not to a single soul.

This is happening. I don't care anymore. Abigail belongs with me—out in the open, in secret...up against the dressing room door...she belongs with me.

I'm taking what's mine, and I won't be sharing.
