Hey Lady? What Does That Mean?: Things my Grandmother and Others used to Say L. Candace Rivers

At the age of twelve Candace began writing the conversations, stories and the "crazy phrases and quotes" that her grandmother Momo used to say. Momo said things like, "I've been around this old ocean" and "Who you hunchin' with yo' sharp elbows" but Candace did not understand what all that meant. As an adult, Candace called Momo "Hey Lady" when they greeted and said, "Hey Lady, I already said that" when Momo would repeat herself. Candace liked saying, "Hey Lady, what does that mean?" when she had a question during their chats; and therefore the perfect title for this memoir - a book of time delicately stitched together in honor of Momo's memory. What a treasure Candace has captured and shares of priceless moments gone by.
