Zyon and Mackie are back and their bond is as unbreakable as ever. That doesn't mean that those against their love won't continue to try. After Zyon proves the ultimate love by killing for Mackie, it awakens a side of her that even she didn't know existed.

Zyon is dealing with a turf war and the changes that he sees in Mackie. Add that to his impending duel with Caruso in New York and you have a recipe full of drama and gut wrenching action. Will he finally get the revenge that he's been waiting an entire decade for?

Bey moves to Atlanta to give a relationship with Cane a chance, but they're both caught up in their own selfish motives. Will they survive all of the craziness going on around them?

When you combine love and the streets there will always be drama, sex, action and murder. Will these couples be able to maintain their love in the A?

The hot, second installment of the Love In The A series will make you want more even after the last page has been turned.
