Oh boy, is he a nasty piece of work...

If there is one man on planet earth any girl should be warned about by the time she enters womanhood, it is Sebastián Farley-Mendoza.

He is the blazing hot polo superstar who - at least evil tongues are saying so - holds the world record in bedding billionaire wives. His own wife and children must tag along meekly on his never ending circuit of high-class sport and high-class seduction.

Now, if you happen to be completely ignorant about the Jet Set and of a rather introvert nature, like Dido Carpenter for example, you should stay well out of Sebastián's way.

But Dido is safe, right? Dido is not very interested in love anyway and Dido would never fall for a man who is married. Never!

Well, all we can say is: Good Luck, Dido...

Sizzle factor: Sexy chick lit (no ten page long in-and-outs, fireworks or chain-climacting pregnant virgins)

Language: Characters tend to be outspoken! Nothing truly disgusting, but expect the occasional four letter word and the rare mentioning of body fluids.

ATTENTION: This book was first published as "He Plays With Fire"

Written in British English.
