Aleck's always looked up to his father, but when he's taken away from him while on duty to protect the laird, he's no one better to blame than the laird himself. Fueled by his determination to avenge his father and kill the laird, he gets as close as possible to him—too close.

Close enough for the laird to think that he'd be a good bodyguard for his daughter. But when the laird's daughter shows up, it's up to Aleck to protect her and ensure the safety of the kingdom. He finds himself wanting to do more than just protect her...
