The Twisted Airwaves Quintet: Twisted Airwave, Misanthropy, We Close Tonight, Nowhere Is Home and Blazing Apostles and Super Pseudo Drug Punks Thomas Priestley

This is the culmination of Thomas Priestley's main work, the semi autobiographical story of two close friends over a period of three decades as they share in drunken bouts of hilarity, suffer troubles that lead to poverty while also engaging the law and many enemies along the way. Based on the characters of We Close Tonight, Priestley takes us through the plights of secondary school to the cruel outside world as the characters within the narrative suffer through a lack of money food, the death of a friend and censorship that is continuously fought against. Along with the four original novels Twisted Airwaves, Misanthropy, We Close Tonight and Nowhere Is Home Priestley also reveals a recently unpublished selection of short stories that coincide with some of the lesser nuances of the novels., this book is comedic, dramatic and in some ways elusive but all together a riot that holds the same energy and aggression of rock n roll music that the characters devote themselves to.
