How can Job Hunting Battle Manual help me secure another leadership role? Why does it represent a much higher ROI than any other career development books?

High value special offer bottom of page.

Ben West, the author of this 'job hunting battle manual', a highly renowned mentor to CEOs and an ex-Defence Force Member is also the founder of the only full service Executive Job Search Agency in the world. He is probably the most experienced person alive in securing leadership roles for executives.

Ben and other shareholders have invested a considerable fortune in building their capabilities and infrastructure for this purpose. Unlike any other firm, Ben's global team regularly select and then invest thousands of dollars in senior executive job seekers securing them interviews and job offers. Through doing so and different to all other "job interview" authors and couch experts they have forged a battle library of strategies and an arsenal of career planning know-how relating to securing leadership roles, specifically in the GFC, available nowhere else. You will not find these career development and job hunt strategies mentioned by other authors, career development professionals, resume writers or recruiters. These guys are incredibly sharp and simply the best in what they do.

This ground breaking job search manual is not 'just another book'. This step-by-step job strategy and career development almanac will turn what you think you know about securing a leadership jobs on its head. The controversial content will unsettle many; it will challenge you like you've never been challenged before. Immediately you will understand, why you're communicating you're value like an amateur. It's confronting, direct and truthful. Some people will probably not be able to finish reading it. For those fragile candidates it comes with a 100% money back guarantee* so confident are they, that you will love it.

This book includes an arsenal of proven job interview and resume writing strategies for sourcing hidden opportunities, differentiating strategic growth leadership, identifying and then decimating your competitors, short circuiting interview processes, capturing hearts and minds and winning the "job search war". Learn literally how to jump to the front of the queue of candidates time after time. Supercharge your network...FAST.

Different to other career planning books this book is not a cookie cutter collection of regurgitated job interview strategies as sprouted by the thousands of authors, career development experts, personal coaches and career management/transition firms in the market place that claim to know how to get someone a job but still won't spend a dime in helping them. Dump that career coach that's preaching from behind his desk. Dump that recruiter that claims they're keeping an eye out for you. This manual will empower you and importantly help you get the desired results.
