The Sixers were the baddest motorcycle club in town. They were led by a man named Ray, a dark-haired, tattooed biker that was intimidating in every way you could have imagined. The other man in charge was Tyler, a tall, blond-haired, blue-eyed stud that turned heads wherever he went. Jacob wanted nothing more than to be a part of their club and serve under the two men.

Jacob gets his chance when he's given an opportunity to pledge as a prospect for the Sixers. The motorcycle club puts Jacob through a series of grueling experiences unlike anything he's ever experienced before. Jacob quickly realizes that to become a Sixer and fulfill the dream he's always had, he's going to have to satisfy the entire biker gang in ways he never thought he would have to.
