PARC (Proceedings of the ACORN-REDECOM Conference) is published annually by the Americas Information and Communications Research Network (ACORN-REDECOM). ACORN-REDECOM is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, education and consulting purposes. The purpose of the organization is to provide training for scholars, government and private sector officers on ICT policy, provide consulting services for government and for profit entities and to hold an annual conference for the exchange of non-partisan research, education, and information and to increase academic, private and government officers and the public awareness regarding ICT policy issues. This volume of the PARC follows a set of annually international conferences, which took place in Buenos Aires (Argentina), New York (United States), Mexico City (Mexico), Brasilia (Brazil), Lima (Peru), and Valparaiso (Chile).
