Sermon: God Knows My Name!: John 10:1-16, NKJV (Sermons) Mark E. Hardgrove

This sermon is based upon John 10:1-16 and explores the implications of the fact that Jesus is the Good Shepherd who knows the name of each of the sheep in His flock. It deals with the intimate relationship between God and man and the powerful fact that in a world of anonymity God knows everything about us, and He loves us anyhow. We are never truly alone as long as remember that God is an ever present help in a time of trouble who will rescue us when we are in trouble.

As a pupil, I exactly feel bored for you to read. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make a summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that have reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher wants, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise, words say, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So, this Sermon: God Knows My Name!: John 10:1-16, NKJV (Sermons) can make you really feel more interested to read.
